County School Head Given Recognition in Journal

Recognition of the work of D. T. Mills, superintendent of Marion county schools, and the county board of education is given in the October issue of the Journal of American Business, a publication devoted to commerce, finance and industry.

The article was prepared by Douglas A. Slater of New York City, editor of the magazine. It was written, Mr. Mills believes, after Mr. Slater studied the regular reports of the Marion county schools sent to the state department of education and forwarded to Washington, D. C.

Following is the item as it appeared in the magazine with the heading, "Superintendent D. T. Mills": "The state of Ohio, significantly, has not relinquished its position as one of the nation's enterprising commonwealths. Educational facilities in that state, while still showing the effects of economic instability, have been maintained in a decidedly satisfactory manner. "One who has witnessed the operation of the schools of Marion county cannot fail to be impressed by what is unquestionably a spirit of high educational endeavor. The superintendent of these schools is D. T. Mills. Located in Marion, he has exercised commendable vigilance in the course of his duties; and, judging from current educational activity in Marion county, nothing has escaped his constant watchfulness in all matters vitally affecting school progress. "The schools of Marion county, Ohio, have been fortunate in having the services of a superintendent-ent and a board of education who believe that any effective form of education must make better citizens. Consequently, they have worked toward improvement in both equipment and in instructional talent. The results of this effort are plain to the observer; and it is evident that Marion county schools are headed in the right direction. Superintendent Mills and the following members of the board of education are to be commended: O. D. Kennedy, president; S. Al-mendinger, vice president; Frances Imbody, secretary, and others."

Mr. Mills said he had no notice that the article was to be published until Mr. Slater called him from New York City two weeks ago asking his permission to use the material. The magazine, according to its statement, is "distributed to those who have gained distinction in American business."

YOUTH, 19, INJURED AS CAR HITS DITCH

Russell Murray Cut on Head as He Acts To Avoid Collision in Fog.

Russell Murray, 19, of north of Marion, suffered a cut on his head when he drove his car into a ditch on the Bucyrus road about 1 p. m. today to avoid running into a car waiting for a train on the Pennsylvania railroad crossing to pass. Murray told members of his family that a heavy fog prevented his seeing the car until he was almost upon it and that he swerved his car into the ditch to avoid a collision.

A passerby took Murray and his companion, Lynn Keeton, to the City hospital. One of Keeton's hands was scratched. Several stitches were required to close the wound on Murray's head. His condition was reported to be fairly good this morning.

Murray is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Murray of the Section road.

Each and every home in Marion will receive from one ten-ounce package of George Fongle Cereal this week.

Gov. Davey's most important judge called for appointment of a non-partisan committee to survey administrative activities of Ohio government with a view to reducing costs and increasing efficiency.
 When the governor asked Col. C. O. Sherrill former city manager of Cincinnati to act as chairman of the committee and when Col. Sherill agreed to do so Ohioan hopes of a practical administrative reform soured.

The Ohio government survey has made its report. It has recommended changes which would enable the state to add more than $11,000,000 to the credit side of its books. The results of the committee study have been published in sections each one containing everything pertinent to one department of government. The survey has come up to expectations. It has revealed what business men tell us and has possible if the state were to be operated on business principles.

Apparently however the survey has exceeded the expectations of the Davey administration which seems to be interested chiefly in scuttling the enterprise initiated so skillfully by the governor. The survey is a stretch in the nostrils of every far-sighted citizen and Welfare Director Margaret Allman in a recent speech "We no longer take the suggestions seriously.
 Incidentally, the survey recommended economies of $7,000,000 in Mrs. Allman's department.

Neither the Ohio government survey findings deserve to be taken seriously, or they do not deserve to be taken seriously.
 Obviously, the brunt of proving they do not deserve to be taken seriously falls on the Davey administration which is pledged to give careful attention to the Sherill committee's recommendations. It is recalled that the committee itself predicted the survey would be simply another "red herring," unless the indicated measures were put into effect. Is Gov. Davey willing to have the state think he never believed in his own ideas?

Get a Clothespin.

Millions who haven't seen the play, to have heard about it. It may be honest muckraking which is the phrase Henry Hull who originally played Jester Lester its principal character used to describe it.
 The play may be even at according to some definitions of art. One fact no one argues about is that Tobacco Road is sordid and that its sordidness gives it theatrical value.

Chicago—and to a lesser extent the whole country—is interested in the order of Mayor Edward J. Kelly closing Tobacco Road. Several things pertinent to the decision should not be overlooked in the general excitement. For instance the play has been running in Chicago six weeks which is a fairly creditable run. Mayor Kelly who objects to its language and theme waited a long time to discover its presence in his city.

Perhaps by remembering these two facts the citizen who is being invited to stand up and fight for one side or the other in the issue can preserve a sensible viewpoint. If Mayor Kelly had been morally alert, Tobacco Road wouldn't have opened in Chicago. The fact he has decided to close it after a month and a half might indicate the mayor is not so hostile to the producer's interests and the welfare of the theater as he pretends to be. Tobacco Road may be sordid but sensitive persons don't get close to Chicago politics without wearing a clothespin on their noses either.

The Squeeze

Secretary of Agriculture Wallace one of the new deal's calm and more rational beings unthinkingly copied the error of some of his administrative brethren in taking a position opposed to an increase in the price of bread. That is to say Mr.
 Wallace did a thing which seemed to prove he is considerably more of a socialist than he says he is.

So far, no government official has been empowered to fix the price of bread or any other necessity, though many of them have been empowered to do things which affect prices. Secretary Wallace is one who has been given responsibility for altering prices. He has been working hard as everybody knows, to increase the price of certain agricultural commodities, including wheat.

Bakers say that the higher price they must pay for wheat, due to the drought and to the scarcity theory used by the loosely administration is one reason they must charge more for bread. Other costs which affect the price of bread have increased.

 Also therefore they propose a general elevation in the price level of bread.
 Secretary Wallace attempted to prevent the price increase by public admonition.
 He impugned the honesty of bakers. He inferred that they had no right to raise the price of bread. Though purely in formal his intervention was a conspicuous indication that Mr. Wallace disputed the right of the bakery business to carry on its business under a competitive economy.
 If his program of agricultural adjustment has been successful at all it costs more to prepare a loaf of bread now than it did a year ago. If there has been any relation in the last 12 months baking costs are higher. Yet apparently to perpetuate critics of a rise in living costs Secretary Wallace does not hesitate to attempt regulation of profit margins. Once more it has been demonstrated that one kind of government intervention leads inevitably to another kind. The department of agriculture art out to regulate production of half a dozen basic commodities. Now it is worrying over the regulation of potatoes and the price of butter.

Does Labor Mean It?

The American Federation of Labor ventures a support of a proposal for amending the Constitution to give the federal government authority over hours of labor and wages will encourage leaders of the drive to modernize the United States government. Unless they are careful how over they may find too much encouragement in it.

 claims slightly more than three million members a small minority of labor's total strength. Delegates to the national convention though nominally representing the federation membership do not control the thoughts and votes of all members.
 Delegates were not instructed specifically on the issue of supporting or rejecting a proposal for amending the Constitution.
 The federation's established leaders were unwilling to commit the convention but they were outmaneuvered by other leaders closer to the politicians who believe the Constitution must be changed to accommodate their ambitions.

It will not be easy to persuade the rank and file of laboring men and women to put themselves into the hands of politicians.
 Unfortunately, much as they may distrust their employers they distrust politicians more. None but those who have been entirely away by admiration for labor's revolutionary condition in Germany and Italy, where the government is in absolute control of labor, will be fooled by the promises of temporary aid against laboring up freedom. In most cases it is sufficient to remind laboring men and women who are uncertain what to think that the right to regulate them if embodied in the Constitution would be virtually permanent while interpretation of the right would be as changeable as a politician's mind.

If a federal leader were seeking the quickest way to establish the supremacy of the state over the individuals within the state he would try to deceive labor into giving government full authority over its conditions of employment. American labor whether allied with the American Federation of Labor or not will give slight support to the stand taken by the Federation's convention. It is not in harmony with the spirit of people who love freedom more than they love government.

Olympic Preliminaries.

If the Olympic games included debating, the United States and Germany should make the final rounds. Their argument over whether or not Germany is being fair to Jewish athletes who might qualify as German representatives in the games is an impressive demonstration of zeal in ethics and plain and fancy charges and countercharges.

Stinkingly many Americans who know nothing about Germany are positive the Germans are closing the doors to Jewish athletes. This is a delicate matter of course since Germans might discover that some doors in the United States don't open to Jews either. It is safe to assume however in view of Germany's control by law-baiting Nazis that Jewish athletes certainly are not encouraged to compete for the honor of representing Germany in the Olympic games though Germany may be pretending to keep its promise of an equal chance for everybody, including Jews.

The question is does the Nazi position on the Jewish question warrant intervention by the United States either to take the Olympic games away from Berlin or to refuse to participate in the games because of persecution of Jews in Germany? In short does the United States want to imply a boycott of the Olympic games as a means of showing the Nazi party once more that it does not approve the policy of persecuting Jews?

Germany's politicians know by this time what Americans think of their policy regarding Jews. The Jewish minority in the United States has spoken with a loud voice and it has been given the support of many non-Jewish individuals and organizations. Even the federal government has lent itself indirectly to the campaign of vituperation against Germany's political leaders. Perhaps there is nothing further that can be done at least within reason.
 The Olympic games are not after all concerned with the problem of the Jewish minority in Germany or with the problem of the Jewish minority in the United States.

New York Day by Day

NEW YORK Oct. 24.—No one it years has provided more publicity for night clubs and cabarets than John J. Barrymore was during them, then this fall when he crossed the Atlantic and after a flow to the phone camera boys arrived on the gallop and frothy rate chat writers on an arctican breeze.

Heretofore members of the Royal Family have held somewhat aloof from those nocturnal cracklings that fuel the Broadway bonfire. Their appearance was confined to an offing a light stroke at the Algonquin or perhaps a drop in at a private party.

But the screen's great lover in casting off traditional restraints went the distance.
 He allowed himself to be placed in the front row tables and offered no protest over the photographic glare. And was equally agreeable about what to how when celebrities were introduced.

He had come to town in advance of a reported marital hollity and entered into the spirit of the sudden freedom with abandon. He even donned the customary paper cap and twirled the rattlers when that peak of hoopla arrived. A Parrymore became one of the gang.

The trifling of the Barrymores was strikingly illustrated at a private gathering attended by a number of years ago several celebrities were called upon for impromptu bits. Tallulah Bankhead a time came and she curtsiedly asked Ethel Barrymore's permission to give an imitation of the great lady. That's all there is! lament it was accomplished with delicate exaggeration.
 Parrymore joined the applause and Miss Parrymore.

Members of dress are not always confined to the gentler sex. George Jean Nathan has his breast pocket installed on the right side. Roy Howard wears patent leather apats with evening attire. Bull Burke Colby affects low collars with full dress. Paul Whiteman carries a cigarette case with a dangle in his right hand. Leonard Cohen, Irving Gollub sports his wrist watch on the inside. Corey Ford wears a bathrobe belt. Sinclair Lewis takes a monicel but only uses it when sleeping. All of Michael Arlen's suspenders are white rubberized silk. George Gershwin has cuffs knitted to match his necktie. Frank Sullivan goes for pencil striped socks and Fred Astaire changes neckties several times a day.

Striking of neckties. Schlappeil sends me from Lark what she calls her latest latest creation. It's a four in hand of milk white silk on which is printed in red ink a crazy quilt of newspaper headlines.
 A delightful occasional event from all parts of the world. As an addy it's odd but a shir to too busy today for even a denierish of an office. As a matter of fact after a of falling for every sort of shade in ties from salmon pink to wet green I'm beginning to hanker for white collared shirts and plain black four in hands. I've got my fill.

Those with curled color complexes will sympathize with King Alfonso of Spain.
 As he has to go to Paris he is going to incognito to sport the old lady wearing apat he loved. After he was booted off the throne the Royalists wanted him all home of kinging it again depended upon a neutral department, especially in dress. So Alfonso expressed his desire only among a few intim-ates in plain of his quarters. Wild red yellow and green house pajamas and robes in public. —Clumps of aboriginal darkness.

Glancing Backward

TEN YEARS AGO

It was Saturday Oct. 24, 1925.
 Marion grocers and meat dealers voiced opinion that food prices had reached their peak here and that living costs would decline precipitously even during the winter.
 A critical situation in prices of clothing was also forecast.

All Rogers in his weekly letter gave most of his comment to Henry Ford's recent purchase of the D. T. & I. railroad.
 He said Mr. Ford knows more human nature than any business man living. He knows the American people want to be paid just as they are going to be paid (referring to the D. T. & I. line) is the very thing for them they can be going somewhere and they no one nobody else will know where.

A news dispatch relayed that Lake Wood's new high school one of the largest and best equipped in northeastern Ohio had been named in honor of President Warren G. Harding. In further honor of President Harding the school named its publication The Harding Star.

Miss Heltha McDonald and W. B. Spaulding, both of Marion were united in marriage by Rev. S. Davis pastor of Trinity Baptist church at the parsonage on South State street.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

It was Sunday Oct. 24, 1905.
 Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Coburn entertained at their home on South Prospect street in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John Adair Jr.
 Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Wiant and son Jack of Detroit were visitors at the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. T. Wiant on South State street.
 Dr. and Mrs. O. M. Young and Dr. and Mrs. F. Mann and daughter Betty were guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs.
 C. C. McNaught in Gallon.

The Marion Quakers defeated the Gal-lion football team before a crowd of 500 at Lincoln park 9:20 O'Donnell scored four touchdowns for Marion and Sullivan and Smith one each.

Neighborhood History

THE BRAYTON MYSTERY

A story which put fear into the hearts of thousands of Marion county was the disappearance of little William Brayton. believed to have been stolen by a band of Canadian Indians in September of 1923.
 Years from searching for lost cattle with his brother William seven years old, started for the home of a neighbor and was never heard from again. Searching parties scoured the forests for days and the distracted parents followed clues to distant parts of the country for years, hoping to learn something of the disappearance of their son.

Years afterward William Brayton journeyed to Cleveland after reading that an Indian captive was in that city searching for news of his family. Marks of identification a scar on the head and one on the great toe of the right foot appeared to bear out the claim that the man was the lost William and he accompanied William to his home. Great crowds gathered along the way and at Carey, hundreds were assembled among them many who had searched for the lost child William and the captive left the train at Adrian station and proceeded to the Brayton home.
 A short time sufficed to convince the family that the arrival was not the lost son and brother He at length was restored to his real parents in Michigan.

Behind The News In Washington and Wall Street

WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON Oct. 24.—Not all the peace moves made by President Roosevelt lately have been made public. There was one in particular which has been tied up by requirements for diplomatic secrecy. You will probably not hear about it until someone within the administration starts telling all in retrospect.

The result of it however is that officials here are far less nervous now than at any time in months.
 Of course they never know how much faith to place in words especially peace diplomatic words.
 But they really have ground to believe that there is substance behind the published peace dispatches which lately have come from Europe.

Consequently Gov. have averted from their expectations of a general war in Europe now and here it will occur some years hence.
 Then Germany will be ready.

What is expected now is a lull in the situation publicly while London and Rome dicker through Paris. The underlying situation is that the nations are involved in constant secret diplomacy and will let little leak out until they are ready to speak.

Britain is supposed to be searching for a way to let Duce consolidate his position in his face in Ethiopia and at the same time permit the league to fall in its whistlers without getting them tangled in an acknowledgment of the Mediterranean domination.
 The only trouble is that everyone projected his face a little farther than necessary thus complicating a peaceful withdrawal of necks. Also annoying is the fact that little seems to have served his purpose as a European football and it is likely to resent the lack of interest which many shortly be dispensed toward him and his cause.

American officials at last have a satisfactory private explanation of what Mussolini wanted in Ethiopia. His military campaign was undertaken as they now understand it solely because of the domestic economic situation in Italy.

His goal was being depicted anywhere by being depicted anywhere. He needed raw materials.
 The Ullable land in Italy was nearly all used up. His tests indicated that raw materials such as cotton could be grown on the Ethiopian highlands.

Furthermore the young Fascist element was howling for action in the face of bad domestic economic situation.

Attorney General Cummings returned from Europe the other day and immediately called a special press conference. Half the news men in town came running at the promise of big news.

Mr. Cummings answered the first few questions with the apology that he had been in Europe and did not know anything that had been going on in his justice department.
 Finally an obliging stage in the rear of the room asked how Mr.
 Cummings enjoyed his stay in Europe. This was the question Mr.
 Cummings had been waiting for. He leaned back and discoursed upward of half an hour on the joys of a vacation in Europe. His audience was so fatigued at the end that it was glad to get out without asking any more questions.

This is not a new method in publicity methods. President Roosevelt frequently has avoided embarrassing questions with similar concealment.
 News men call it filibustering.

The inside expectation is that silver will be kept at the existing price, probably until after the turn of the year. An increased price is expected next year for political effect. Marketers believe that during the last month the treasury has been buying little. Whenever distress silver is offered in London, the government bids 29 1/2 pence. That is what keeps the price stabilized here at about 65 1/2 cents an ounce and is likely to continue so.

Wall Street

Wall Street has noticed lately an increase of mail from people who want things from the government.

One western member estimates that five sixths of his mail is of this character (excluding letters from job seekers). His requests are largely for relief farm loans, money to buy a farm.

The tone of the letters indicates that a substantial number of ritzers have the idea that a congressman is a fellow who knows Santa Claus.

BY JAMES MCNULTY

NEW YORK Oct. 24.—For all the Federation of Labor's renewed agitation for the 30-hour week that isn't really its main target at present. The primary objective is to develop collective bargaining along closed shop lines as rapidly as possible.

Maximum use will be made of the Wagner act for that purpose.
 So far the A. F. of L. has been making a quiet study of the law to determine how much protection it gives them. Now its chiefs have decided they can safely step on the gas—and they will. Every collecting bargaining agreement they get will give from impetus to their recruiting campaign. The more members they can get the better position they will be in to push shorter week and other demands later. Large industry is of course equally aware of this and is preparing to fight the unions every step of the way. The biggest battle is brewing in the auto industry.

Meanwhile the 30 hour issue is a useful banner to the trade union creation manhood. It helps convince the rank and file that their leaders are up on their toes.
 What's more it's good for a long time to come. No one knows better than labor chiefs that the goal cannot be reached soon—which is okay with them. Also the shorter week is much more appealing from a public relations viewpoint than the closed shop drive—which won't be emphasized for publication any more than is necessary.

Here's the inside dope on German conditions and foreign policy as picked up by New Yorkers with first rank German contacts. Munitions manufacture and public works have stimulated employment and promoted internal economic stability. But rearmament hasn't progressed nearly as far as the outside world believes. There's a shortage of heavy artillery and tanks—and even Goering's air force isn't nearly as large or as efficient as it has been reported.
 The last thing the German army wants is war with France at present 1937 or 38 may tell a different story. Military deficiencies should be remedied then.

Germany will make no real bid for an Italian alliance. Her general staff privately has a very low opinion of Italian military capabilities in a serious war.

The keystone of German foreign policy is a tie-up with Poland.
 That isn't easy to develop after years of suspicious hatred and with sore spots like the Polish Corridor and Danzig in memory.
 But Nazi diplomats are working to ease the friction and to convince the Poles they have more to fear from Russia than from Germany. The Franco-Russian alliance helps the German cause in this respect. The Poles feel terribly isolated and wish urgently to find a friend. If a Polish-German agreement is reached watch for a Nazi push to the East—in Manchester as the first—but by no means the only—objective.

Women
 Mrs. Robert Lincoln Hoyal director of the women's division of the GOP national committee has started the ball rolling by a vigorous speech at Chicago. The GOP high com. and counts strongly on the help of women next year. Mrs.
 Hoyal says she finds women intensely interested in national politics. Economic questions now to the fore affect the household.
 The GOP plan to make waste debts, taxes and the high cost of living the major issues is calculated to appeal to women.

 However keen observers figure that President Roosevelt's financial moves have great strength among women voters especially in rural regions and among low workers. A trainload of highbrow women went west a few years ago to carry enlightenment to the nighted sister. The travelers were nearly mobbed their heads puffed out having their hair pulled but that was all.

Most hardened male politicians are skittish when it comes to dealing with the feminine vote.
 Billions

President Roosevelt will see the first budget estimates upon his return. As a whole the budget will be his work. It will be trimmed or expanded as he directs. Acting Budget Director Bell is the man merched that knuckles down to excellent department figures.

Ordinary government operations are to be cut to the bone. The tough job is to hold down emergency new deal items. Millions must be allotted to new agencies like rural youthment unless plans are to be jettisoned. Work relief will cost billions more. Com-mercially Credit Corp. must have money for cotton loans. AAA must have millions from the treasury general funds if processing taxes are out.

New York financial men expect that from now till December the President's brow will be puckered.
 The house appropriations committee will begin hearings for preparation of the big annual bill.

The Illinois Belle Telephone issue recently floated under the auspices of Morgan Stanley and other leading investment bankers was by way of a test American Telephone has other refunding for its subsidaries in mind but wanted to be sure the investing public was in a receptive mood.

The experiment was so successful that other issues will follow soon. Forty eight million dollars in Southern Telephone and 547 000,000 in bonds of Southern Bell Telephone & Telegraph—although they do not mature for years—are due to be called for refunding at cheaper interest.

A wealthy New York lady has some valuable pearls which she keeps in the safe deposit vaults of a downtown bank. She almost never takes them out for her personal use.

But pearls lose their luster if they aren't worn frequently. So arrangements have been made for girl stenographers in the bank to take turns wearing them during working hours. Each girl—while performing this service—is flanked constantly by two armed guards paid by the owner of the pearls.

Reminder
 Here's a delicate touch in the Nazi campaign to show the Jews how much they are appreciated.
 A sign on a road near a large German city reads roughly as follows: Dangerous curve—speed limit 15 miles an hour—No speed limit for Jews.

It must be pleasant to have your

Hobby.

RECENTLY I attended an exhibition where several booths were devoted to "hobbies". There were collections of stamps, rare editions of books, model airplanes, unusual toys and games, mechanical devices and a hundred other exhibits.
Many of them were indeed fascinating.

Hobbies have always been popular. Hardly one of us has been so fortunate as to escape the culture of at least one. But it is only in recent years that the hobby has become a serious pursuit. Some special interest, for instance, will make one forget to eat and sleep. Lack of direction often is the underlying cause of "nervous", the "jitters", and mental depression. Diverting the mind to some new interest will overcome that depressed feeling.

Many a hobby can be traced to an early childhood interest that has increased with the years. It is wise for the parents to encourage the pursuit of a special interest. If it does nothing else it insures the child a valuable and pleasant pastime. A hobby is of special value to the "only child" or the child who is lonely and difficult to please. It will occupy his mind keep him alert, satisfied and out of mischief.

The encouragement of a hobby does not mean the expenditure of a large sum of money. In the case of the child, no matter how rich you may be, it is advisable to begin with something quite simple and expand upon it as the child grows older.

Over attempt to force a hobby upon the child. Let his appetite develop naturally. A special diversion of this sort will help to lessen the "boredom" of the daily routine.
It is well to remember the old proverb "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy."

Do not confine your attention to your serious daily work. Find a hobby. There are many entertaining and fascinating ways of spending leisure moments which will add much to your life. Try to locate one.

FAT GIRLS GET THE GO-BY—SLIM GIRLS WIN MEN

Learn The Easy Way—Without Starvation Diet

Health, Endurance, Slimness, and a Wonderful Figure

There is a reason why so many people find dieting slow and often times a failure in reducing. The reason, doctors say, is often because a little gland is not working right.

All the food in your body goes through this gland about eleven times every day. If it doesn't pour from the blood stream about one and one-half times of the blood every 24 hours, many people take on extra fat.

This fluid helps a person to burn fat, excess food and fat in much the same way as a good draft acts in a furnace.

Now, chemists combat this condition by feeding this gland the substance it needs—and millions of pounds of excess fat has been wiped out this way.

Marmola's Precious Tablets are based on the same scientific method used by doctors. In fact, it's the only way to really reduce without starving or doing any hard work or depending on harmful health-racking pills and laxatives for their action.

Start the Marmola's treatment today that millions have used successfully to get rid of excess fat. The formula is so easy to use you know just what you are taking. Don't wait—get Marmola's today from drugists.

For Quick Cough Relief, Mix This Remedy at Home

No Cooking! No Work! Real Saving!

You'll never know how quickly a bad cold or cough can be relieved until you try this famous recipe. It is used in more homes than any other cough remedy. It's more prompt, more reliable. It's no trouble at all to mix and costs but a trifle.

Into a pint bottle, pour 2 1/2 ounces of honey, 1/2 ounce of lemon juice, 1/2 ounce of vinegar, 1/2 ounce of salt, 1/2 ounce of soda, 1/2 ounce of baking powder, 1/2 ounce of cream of tartar, 1/2 ounce of cornstarch, 1/2 ounce of rice, 1/2 ounce of flour, 1/2 ounce of sugar, 1/2 ounce of molasses, 1/2 ounce of maple syrup, 1/2 ounce of honey, 1/2 ounce of lemon juice, 1/2 ounce of vinegar, 1/2 ounce of salt, 1/2 ounce of soda, 1/2 ounce of baking powder, 1/2 ounce of cream of tartar, 1/2 ounce of cornstarch, 1/2 ounce of rice, 1/2 ounce of flour, 1/2 ounce of sugar, 1/2 ounce of molasses, 1/2 ounce of maple syrup.

Instantly you feel its penetrating effect. It loosens the phlegm, helps clear the air passages and soothes the inflamed membranes. This three fold action explains why it brings such quick relief in distressing coughs. Phlegm is a concentrated compound of mucus. It is famous for its soothing effect on throat membranes. Money refunded if it doesn't please you in every way.

EVANGELIST DENIES MODERNISM ENOUGH

Claims Sin Is Possible Even in Best of Environ-

"Modernism claiming environment is all that is necessary is wrong," Miss Edna Deuell Canton evangelist declared in a sermon last night at the Oakland Park church on "Four Great Epochs in the History of the Human Race." "Created, Corrupted, Cleansed."

Adam and Eve were placed in a perfect environment, she continued, "and yet because of the power of sin their relationship with God was marred. No person can sin without going deeper in sin."

And corruption and sin took to hell. The first Adam brought corruption and destruction to the human race, the second Adam Jesus Christ brought a blessing to us.

Miss Alice Russell sang a solo and led congregational singing. Services will continue each night except Saturday at 7:30 with a prayer service at 7.

He was arraigned following his confession to Sheriff Arthur Stuckert that he smuggled two revolvers into the jail to Long and O'Leary, his own revolver on Oct. 9, and on Oct. 17 which he had stolen the day before from the sheriff's car in the county garage.

Long and O'Leary, already bound to the grand jury under $5,000 bond each on armed robbery charges in connection with a Bucyrus holdup, were placed under an additional $500 bond each after they waived reading of charges of armed robbery filed following a Gallon holdup.

Ohio State U. Football Nears Million Dollar Class

HALF THAT AMOUNT GOES TO ATHLETIC FUND OF UNIVERSITY

Es says Each of 43 Players Will Bring in $11,500 or School

The Associated Press
O. Oct. 24—Ohio football for the 1936 season is being built into the fall season. The team will pour into the university with support from the athletic fund, the new fund for the new season.

A squad of 43 players, a statistician, a trouble figure that earn about $11,500 this year. Any even the fourth enough on that salary staff.

With three games in the tickets at the two remaining games, the team will have an all time record of 10 wins and 10 home games will be played.

666 customers, 28,970 saw the Bucks mother Drake, and 42,335 were on hand for the Northwestern tilt. The three-game total is 128,011 or 104,254 behind the all time mark. In 1926 when 232,365 pushed their way through the stadium gates.

With nearly 60,000 seats already sold for the Nov. 2 game with Notre Dame and about 35,000 disposed of for the Nov. 16 clash with Bob Zuppke's Illinois the old record is no more.

If Ohio and Illinois continue to win their clash here is expected to draw about 75,000 but should at least attract 60,000. A 75,000 gate would put the season about 40,000 ahead of 1925.

Saturday's game with Indiana at Bloomington is scheduled to attract about 25,000. The Chicago contest will draw 40,000 and the Michigan fray close to 60,000 or a total for the five home and three road games of approximately 400,000.

The average price of tickets is $2.50 and 480,000 admissions make a total of about $1,000,000 which the Bucks will help draw through the receipts on a 50-50 basis giving the Buckeye university about $500,000.

PROJECT TO START
MARISSVILLE Oct. 24—Work on the swimming pool WPA project at American Legion headquarters will be started by Friday. Norman Ackley, Union county WPA engineer, announced Wednesday W. Wilson, Marietta contractor, has been employed to supervise the project.

Indiana Works Out For Clash With Ohio State

Northwestern, Twice Defeated, Optimistic About Game with Minnesota; Iowa, Illinois To Meet

By The Associated Press
CHICAGO Oct. 24—If they gave championships for trying and beating in football, the Big Ten trophy would go to Tann Waldorf and his Northwestern Wildcats. Caged, tamed and licked twice this season first by Purdue and then by Ohio State the Wildcats still are convinced that they have a chance of a football team. On paper they don't rate more than an outside chance against Minnesota Saturday, but they are almost down right confident of surprising everybody but themselves by giving the Gophers a tough afternoon they won't forget for many a year.

Any spectator watching the Wild cats work out for the Minnesota battle would gain only one impression—that Northwestern not only was undefeated but unscathed on with all the fire dash and enthusiasm of a championship team they plunked into work busting up Minnesota formations as worked by technicians and driving through for long gains.

Every Big Ten coach drove his team through long drives yesterday for Saturday's engagements.

Coach Bo McMillin hustling to get together an Indiana team that can give Ohio State an interesting afternoon sent his players through their longest workout of the season emphasizing punting. Ohio State polished up its highly geared offense and defense and revealed that quarterback Stan Plonka probably would be ready to play against the Hoosiers.

TOWNSENDITES HOLD PARLEY IN CHICAGO
Gray Haired Followers of Californian Come by Bus, Train and Auto

CHICAGO Oct. 24—Disciples of Dr. Francis E. Townsend, 71, helped them glide through old age on government pensions of $200 a month—gathered today for one of the most unusual rallies in Chicago history.

Gray haired legions came by bus and train in creaking cars and polished up their mobiles to attend the opening of the first national convention of Townsend clubs.

Accommodations were arranged for 6,000 advocates of the program to provide $200 a month to all persons 60 or more. They hailed it as the best method of aiding the aged and the most likely means of establishing permanent prosperity.

The principal objective was the perfecting of strategy to persuade the next congress to adopt their proposal. Failing that they hoped to mobilize sufficient strength in the 1936 elections to pack the senate and house with their supporters.

Dr. Townsend the Long Beach (Cal.) physician who conceived the idea 18 months ago, made this first prediction.

He will direct the congress of the United States next year and the chief executive must do nothing but T. rank and file shared his confidence.
